

School

School is described as a place of education, peers working for years until the year of graduation.

Schools are the building blocks of promising paths.

To every student that goes to school
has a bright future to follow.

—Kymberly Pryce— Grade 6